Local and Personal.

Mrs. J. R. Kelly of Wilmington will arrive tonight to visit her sister, Mrs. John Fullenwider.

Mr. J. W. Lathan and family of Monroe spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. P. P. W. Plyler of Marshville.

Mrs. John P. Lasley and little daughter, Virginia, of Havre 'de Grace, Maryland, are visiting Miss Inez Flow.

Miss Lena Green, who is teaching at Belmont, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. S. H. Green.

The Macedonia school, taught by Misses Minnie Funderburk and Effie Laney, will close Wednesday, March 30, with exercises in the afternoon by primary students and in the evening by advanced students. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Southern agents of the Columbia Life Insurance Company of Boston, will have a meeting at the Georgia Terrace Hotel in Atlanta on the 15th. Mr. W. K. Mahone, general agent, will take his North and South Carolina agents to the meeting.

Rev. B. Craig will leave tomorrow on a tour in the Eastern part of the State in behalf of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, to be gone 12 days, and speaking in Duplin, Wayne, Hertford, Bertie, and Edgecombe counties.

Squire J. M. Harkey of Vance came to town this morning to get iron for seven drags that the supervisors of Vance have ordered made. He said: "Folks must be going into the road dragging business right, as they have bought out all the irons, and we have to wait for more to come. The drag is a great thing."

Will Be Many Delegates.

Already 200 women all about the State have sent in their names as delegates who expect to be present at the great missionary meeting here, to begin the 26th. Many names are coming in on all mails and the number will probably exceed 400. The entertainment committee is working hard and will have everything in shape at the proper time.

Union County Man Shoots a Man in Concord.

In an altercation over an account yesterday afternoon in Concord, Mr. Marion Hamilton, son of Mr. W. T. Hamilton of Marshville township, and brother of Mr. J. W. Hamilton of Monroe, shot and dangerously wounded Mr. M. F. Elchtle of that place. The wound was reported as very dangerous. It is not known here where the fall lay. Mr. Hamilton and his brother clerked at Elchtle's store in Concord, and the shooting occurred there. Mr. Elchtle clerked in a hardware store. Both men have families. Mr. J. W. Hamilton went to Concord last night and he is expected to return tonight accompanied by his brother.

Mr. Crook Wounded.

Mr. Leroy Crook of North Monroe township, was cut in the side Saturday night at Benton & Crow's store north of town. He went in the store under the influence of whiskey and was very boisterous and offensive in his language. Mr. Baxter Benton, son of Mr. J. F. Benton, got the idea that Crook was about to attack his father, and pulled his knife out and stabbed Crook. Dr. Neal was called, and carried Crook to Charlotte, where it was found that the wound was not likely to be serious, and he is expected home in a day or two. Young Benton is a quiet boy, attends strictly to his own business, but owing to ill health is very nervous. He at once went home with his father and went to bed.

SEWERAGE ELECTION.

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Monroe Ordain—

1. That for the purpose of establishing, providing and maintaining a sewerage system for the City of Monroe the Board of Aldermen shall issue bonds of the City of Monroe to the amount of thirty thousand ($30,000.00) dollars, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, of the denomination of one thousand dollars, to each and every one of which bonds shall be attached coupons representing the interest due thereon, which coupons shall be due and payable annually until said bonds shall mature. The bonds shall run for a period of thirty years and shall be consecutively numbered and the coupons shall bear the number of the bond to which they are attached and shall declare the amount of interest which they represent and when due and shall be receivable in payment of taxes due the City of Monroe by the holder of said bonds. The bonds shall be exempt from municipal taxation.

2. That the bonds shall be issued under the signature of the Mayor of the City of Monroe, witnessed by the signature of the Clerk to the Board of Aldermen and attested by the official seal of the City of Monroe and shall be sold by the Mayor of the City of Monroe, under the direction of the Board of Aldermen, at a sum not less than their par value.

3. That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds annually, as it becomes due, and of providing a fund for the payment of said bonds at maturity, the Board of Aldermen shall annually levy and cause to be collected, as other city taxes are levied and collected, a tax upon real and personal property, and mixed, subject to taxation for municipal purposes sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds and to provide a fund for the payment of said bonds as required by the statute authorizing their issue.

4. That the question whether the bonds heretofore provided for shall be issued and a sewerage system established, operated and maintained in the City of Monroe shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Monroe for their determination on the 7th day of May, 1912, after sixty days' notice thereof in the same manner as is provided for the election of officers for the city of Monroe, at which election those voters favoring the issue of bonds and the establishment of a sewerage system shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed "Sewerage," and those opposing the issue of bonds and the establishment of a sewerage system shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed "No Sewerage."

Read in regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen and passed first reading on February 5th, 1912, by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Aldermen.

Passed its second reading in regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen on March 4th, 1912, by a three-fourths vote.

In accordance with the above resolution, an election will be held at the usual voting places within the City of Monroe, North Carolina, on the 7th day of May, 1912, at which all qualified voters of the City of Monroe shall have the right to determine whether the said bonds shall be issued by the City of Monroe for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a sewerage system for said City of Monroe, and for the purpose of allowing all persons to register for said election, the registration books will be opened for registration at the usual voting places on the sixth Saturday before the election and every subsequent Saturday until the second Saturday before the election.
